

For homework 5 I had trouble implementing Jukes Cantor model and the Kimura model. Specifically I need to review how to use position, range and index in order to write successful for loops so that I can better understand the code. I think that after finishing this lab I do understand the two models better.